- All prices include the legal VAT.
- Contract language is German. The presentation of the products in the online shop does not constitute a legally binding offer, but a non-binding online catalogue. After entering your personal data and clicking on the order button in the final step of the ordering process, you submit a binding order for the goods contained in the shopping cart. The confirmation of receipt of the order follows immediately after the order has been sent. This automatic acknowledgement of receipt merely documents that the order has been received by us and does not represent an order acceptance. We are entitled to accept your order within 5 days upon receipt by sending an order confirmation in writing or in text form (e.g. e-mail), in which you are asked to pay or in which we confirm the processing of the order or the delivery of the goods. Deviating from this applies: A binding contract can as well take place previously if you choose an online payment method and make the payment immediately after sending the order. In this case, the contract is concluded at the time the corresponding payment service provider confirms the payment.
- Unless otherwise agreed or otherwise stated at the article, we deliver - stock provided – latest within 5 working days. The delivery time for advance payment methods begins after the customer has executed his payment, for other payment methods (e.g. cash on delivery or invoice), the delivery period begins after order acceptance by us. On Sundays and bank holidays will not be delivered, the delivery time is extended accordingly.
- The goods remain the property of Rudi Schlattner GmbH until full payment.
